

Proclamation

WHEREAS, Louisiana knows her most valuable resource is her children; and

WHEREAS, Louisiana knows that her children will bring the beauty of truth and the laws that hold justice and freedom into the future; and

WHEREAS, Ben Franklin once said, "The key to freedom is education," and Louisiana's youth must be provided with this key; and

WHEREAS, the vital protection and guidance of every Louisiana child is of utmost importance to Louisiana's citizens; and

WHEREAS, our beautiful state provides an atmosphere for educational, moral, and physical growth for children; and

WHEREAS, it is every adult's responsibility to be aware of the value of the education and protection of Louisiana's children.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Kathleen Babineaux Blanco, Governor of the state of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim May 31, 2006, as in the state of Louisiana.

CHILDREN'S DAY

Attest By
The Governor

[Signature]
Secretary of State

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Louisiana, at the Capitol, in the City of Baton Rouge, on this the 18th day of May
A. D., 2006

Kathleen Babineaux Blanco
Governor of Louisiana